1. General

The Civil Union Law of 2015 (184(I)/2015) entered into force with the publication of the law in the Official Government Gazette on 09/12/2015.

The law introduces the institution of the Civil Union in the legal system of Cyprus. The main responsibility in regards to contracting of Civil Unions is attributed to the Registrar who is the District Officer.

2. Purpose of the Guide

The purpose of this Guide is to provide information to the public in relation to the content of the legislation and the requirements and procedures it introduces.

3. Basic Terms of the Law

"Civil Union" means the partnership recognised under the law.

"Deputy Registrar General" means the Director of the Civil Registry and Migration Department (CRMD).

"Special Civil Union Register" means the register kept in the CRMD from the Assistant Registrar General.

"Form of Civil Union" means the form submitted to the Registrar from the persons concerned in order to contract a Civil Union.

"Registrar" means the District Officers and includes other officer authorised from the Registrar.

"Register" means the register kept by the Registrar.

"Certificate of Civil Union" means the certificate issued under Article 7 and given to the Civil Partners.

"Civil Partners" means the parties contracting a Civil Union under the present Law.

4. Contracting a Civil Union and its Legal Effect

With the exclusion of the Adoption Law, contracting a Civil Union has respective effects and consequences as if a marriage was solemnised under the provisions of the Marriage Law and any reference included in any legislation of the Republic of Cyprus to "spouse" shall be interpreted as a reference to the Civil Partners of a Civil Union. The law does not determine the sex of the persons intending to contract a Civil Union.

5. Place and Time of Contracting a Civil Union

The contracting of a Civil Union takes place before the District Officer acting in his capacity as a Registrar.

The proceedings take place exclusively by prior appointment at the district of residence of one of the persons concerned or, in case the persons concerned do not permanently reside in Cyprus, at the district of their free choice.

The presence of other friends and relatives of the persons concerned during the proceedings can be permitted upon agreement of the competent authority. However, the procedure does not take any excessively celebratory character, in order not to hamper the functioning of the public service.

- For verifying the place of residence, persons concerned may present one of the following documents (the list is not exhaustive):
 - a confirmation from the community chief councillor
 - utility bills (water, telephone, electricity, garbage etc.)
 - any other public document showing place of residence
- EU Citizens and third country nationals can present their residence title/permit in case it states the place of their residence.

 The procedure of contracting a Civil Union takes place only at the District's Administration main offices and exclusively upon appointment.

6. Requirements – Free Consent and Legal Capacity

Contracting a Civil Union requires the free consent of the persons concerned, as provided in Article 5 of the Law. Failure to comply with this condition may result to a void or annulable Civil Union within the meaning of the Law.
